- Preference for schools offering topics identified as highest priority
- Some form of demonstrated expertise in the topic
- Clear learning objectives and a plan for how to effectively deliver content and engage participants.

A stipend of $500 will be given to selected schools that are providing a one-time learning opportunity of 4 hours or less.

A stipend of $1,000 will be given to selected schools offering a full day offering or an offering that includes a follow-up learning opportunity or other follow-up activities, like check-ins or school visits.

Details

Workshops/trainings should:

- Be interactive, engaging, and consider best practice approaches to adult learning
- Allow time for participants to engage and interact with one another
- Be prepared with whatever technology or materials will be used and let participants know how best to prepare in advance

- Not include "infomercials" for a particular vendor, consultant or product
- Among other norms, promise confidentiality for participants

MAPCS staff and consultants are available as resources for promoting the opportunity at your school, and/or for advising on content and approach.
